Whereas, as the 2003-2004 school year draws to a close, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives pause to applaud the career achievements of those individuals who are retiring from the field of education; and

Whereas, the Cape Girardeau School District is losing a valuable member of its faculty with the retirement of Carol H. Brice who has devoted several years of her life to the education of this state's young citizens through tireless endeavors as a teacher; and

Whereas, Carol Brice has distinguished herself as a reading teacher at Blanchard Elementary School, where she is held in high esteem as an educator who demonstrates considerable competence and remarkable degrees of compassion and understanding; and

Whereas, deeply committed to the great cause of learning, Carol Brice has touched the lives of countless youngsters by helping them form a solid educational foundation upon which to build in the future; and

Whereas, Carol Brice has supported her profession as a member of the Missouri State Teachers Association and the Community Teachers Association, of which she is past President; and

Whereas, Carol Brice earned a Bachelor's degree in education and a Master's degree in education specializing in reading at Southeast Missouri State University; and

Whereas, a member of New McKendree United Methodist Church, Carol Brice has been blessed with the love and support of a wonderful family whose members include her husband, Joseph W. Brice; two children, Brian Hahs and Christy Flannery; two stepchildren, Julie Fortune and Shawn Brice; and ten grandchildren:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-second General Assembly, join the Cape Girardeau School District in expressing appreciation for the unparalleled service that Carol Brice has rendered to Missouri's children and in wishing her the long, fruitful, and enjoyable retirement that she so justly deserves; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Carol H. Brice, as a measure of our esteem for her.
